TRAGER, District Judge

On September 16, 2005 plaintiff moved for leave to have Matthew Miller admitted pro hac vice. On the morning of September 21, 2005 that motion was granted. In the afternoon on September 21st, defendant filed an "Affidavit in Opposition" to plaintiff's motion.

Defendant's "Affidavit in Opposition" dose not state any valid reason to deny Mr. Miller's admission. Therefore, upon consideration of defendant's objections to Mr. Miller's September 21st admission pro hac vice, the admission stands.
